Spring Hill Messenger

DECEMBER 2025

Dear Saints of Spring Hill,

As we move from this season of thanksgiving and stewardship to Advent, I want to share my heartfelt gratitude for those who have already turned in your pledges and time & talent forms. Your commitments help sustain our ministries and give us a clearer picture of how we can faithfully step forward into the future God is preparing for Spring Hill Presbyterian Church.

If you have not yet made your pledge, I invite you to prayerfully consider doing so. Your generosity directly supports the strength and stability we need as we begin our new chapter: calling an Associate Pastor for Discipleship Formation.

Where We Are Now

The Associate Pastor Nominating Committee (APNC) has begun its work and already met several times. They are diligently shaping the narratives and materials that will soon be posted online in the PC(USA) search system. This is a thoughtful, Spirit-led process that needs the insight, wisdom, and prayers of the whole congregation.

As a Session and staff, we have worked together to develop a detailed job description that reflects who we are and who we hope to become. But this position is not meant to be created from my vision and session input. It must rise out of the lived experience, hopes, and dreams of the people who make Spring Hill their spiritual home.

We Need Your Voice

To help guide this process, the APNC is asking for your reflections on four critical questions, each designed to help clarify the shape of the ministry we are seeking to build:

1. What are Spring Hill Presbyterian Church's major strengths from your perspective?
2. What are the major limitations and/or possible areas for improvement at SHPC?
3. What should be the new Associate Pastor's major priorities, opportunities, and challenges?

What personal and professional characteristics do you believe this person will need to thrive in leadership here?

Why Your Input Matters

We are creating a pastoral role that will help weave together our worship, mission, education, fellowship, and spiritual practices into a holistic life of discipleship. This position will help us grow in covenant relationship with God and one another, discover deeper purpose in our ministries, and nurture the spiritual life of our whole congregation.

This is why your insights matter. Your stories and hopes will help shape not only a job description, but a vision for who we are becoming.

A Prayer for Our Journey

As we move forward in this work, I ask you to:

- Pray for our APNC
- Share your voice and perspective
- Continue supporting the church financially and spiritually

And stay attentive to how God is calling each of us to grow in grace

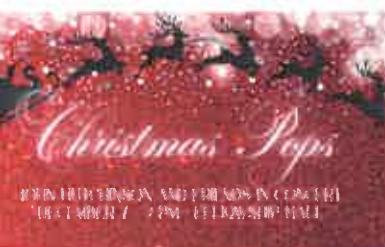

Together we are building something rooted in gratitude, shaped by listening, and grounded in our shared call to follow Jesus Christ.

With hope and thanksgiving,

Rev. Brandon E. Miles

ADVENT-ures in Music

Special music will ring out throughout the church during the season of Advent, and you won't want to miss any of it! Here are the "musts":

December 7 – The children and youth choirs help to lead in worship. Then in the afternoon, you won't want to miss the Christmas Pops concert in the Fellowship Hall at 2 PM. I and several friends from the choir will be presenting piano selections such as

Christmastime is here and Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer, vocal selections such as Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas and It's a Marshmallow World, organ selections such as Carol Rhapsody and What Child is This?, and an audience sing-along of holiday favorites!

December 14 – The chancel choir will be joined by chamber orchestra to present a Mobile premiere of Taylor Scott Davis's setting of the Magnificat: the song that Mary sang when the angel Gabriel announced that she was to give birth. You will be blessed by this at times joyous and at times reflective cantata.

December 21 – The Spring Hill Ringers and Chancel Choir lead in worship.

December 24 – The annual Lessons and Carols service takes place on Christmas Eve at 6 PM this year. The choir has prepared all new music to accompany the biblical story of Jesus' birth. This will be a truly sacred service of candlelight, communion, and music.

Current Issues

Dec. 7 — Owen Drey, who is serving our congregation as a pastoral care intern for the month of December, will be our guest speaker. He will share what has led him on this path in life, his many travels, what he has learned along the way, and what comes next for him. Join us for this casual conversation with Owen in Fellowship Hall at 9:00. All are welcome!

Dec. 14 — Judy Weaver and representatives from the Associate Pastor Nominating Committee are scheduling listening sessions to help them discern what our congregation hopes for in our next associate pastor. Bring your thoughts and ideas and come ready to discuss and share.

Dec. 21 — We all know the lyrical power of music. In a recent issue of Presbyterian Outlook, the editors posed the question: "What music are you listening to these days and why?" As we move into the fourth Sunday of Advent, think about what music meets you where you are when you think about Hope, Love, Joy, and Peace? What lifts you up? Gives you comfort? Inspires you to action? Make a list and bring it to share.

Dec. 28 — No Sunday School. Enjoy this holiday time with family and friends.

Join us for a service for healing and wholeness to help you through this season. If you have issues of loneliness, isolation, family stress, financial worries, you are not alone.

During this season for high expectations, pressures build and joy is illusive. Take time to take care of yourself.

More information will come in the new year.

Give to others and honor your family and friends via SHPC's ANNUAL ALTERNATIVE GIFT MARKET (AGM) which benefits support agencies in our local community and the world beyond.

Agencies selected for our 2025 ALTERNATIVE GIFT MARKET

Boys and Girls Clubs of South Alabama

Family Promise

McKemie Place

Penelope House

Victory Health Partners

Home of Grace for Women

Wings of Life

Heifer International

The Presbyterian Mission Agency (PCUSA)

This Christmas mission project features these nine local and international agencies beyond SHPC's annually budgeted benevolences. The AGM form provides information about each agency, noting how donations may be used. AGM forms will be available throughout December at the church and in e-news. Donations and representative gift selections may be made any time prior to December 31 by submitting your AGM order form and attached donation check in the offering plate or sending them to Dawn Hearn in the church office. Gift cards for you to send to honor friends and family may also be obtained in the sanctuary narthex, church hallway, or church office.

John 1:16 - “From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.”
